

SOLD TO THE L. E. W.

The I. D. & S. Railway Passes Under a New Management.

New York, Nov. 16.—The reorganization committee of the Indianapolis, Decatur & Springfield Railroad company, at a meeting held here to-day, decided to sell the controlling interest in the road, represented by $1,800,000 first mortgage bonds, to the Lake Erie & Western railroad. The price to be paid for the bonds is 130.

The Indianapolis, Decatur & Southwestern road runs from this city to Decatur, Ill., through one of the best grain sections. It is well equipped and does a good business. The company owns a right of way to Quincy, Ill.

The Brice syndicate, which bought the line a few days ago, has secured the "Mackinaw" route, and has about settled the purchase of the Cincinnati, Lebanon & Northern. It is believed by railroad men that all the acquired lines will be consolidated with the Lake Erie & Western system.

Senator Vest's Disgust.

From the Globe-Democrat.
Col. Tom Towels, of Missouri, chief clerk of the House of Representatives, was traveling back to Washington after the election in an inconspicuous and unobtrusive way, when some one touched him on the arm. He turned and saw Senator Vest, his hat drawn down over his face, his shoulders elevated a little higher than usual, and the tawny mustache bristling over tightly compressed lips. The Senator didn't speak. The two campaigners eyed each other a few moments, and then Col. Towels asked: "Who are you, anyway?"

"Blest if I know who I am," was the reply.
"Well," said Towels, after another pause, "Senator, I congratulate you."
"Congratulations?" retorted the Senator with a growl. "I'd like to know why I am to be congratulated."
"Because," said Towels, "from what few returns I have seen I find that where you made speeches in Missouri we ran about a thousand worse behind than where you didn't."

The Senator took a short turn down the platform, and when he came back he said:

"There's too much truth in that to be amusing."
"Well," continued Towels, "suppose we go into the car and talk it over."
"No," said the senator positively, "we'll not talk it over. I'll not talk it over with anybody. I'll not even talk to my wife about it. If I did I'm afraid I'd whip her."

The Senator was on his way to Hot Springs for the purpose, as he expressed it, "of boiling some of the disgust out of himself."
Hoyt's Play.
"A Trip to Chinatown," will be seen at the Grand Tuesday night. It is funny. Mr. Frank Lane, who plays the part of Welland Strong, heads the list of comedians and promises to be as funny as his character would indicate. Gerald Griffin, the "Ben Gay" of the company, is just as sedate as a stand old man could be when out with the boys. Lottie Mortimer as "Flirt" is more captivating than ever. George Bryton as "Willie Grow" is thoroughly up to the times for a youngster, while Sara Maddern as the gushing widow, Mrs. Guyer, and in fact the whole company are deserving of special mention. The scenery, costumes, properties have all been renovated since its production at the home theatre, and are carried with the company. Mr. Hoyt intends to present "A Trip to Chinatown" in a manner that will leave a little to be desired from the amusement-loving public.

WOMEN IN THE PULPIT

The Gallant Divines of the City of Cleveland

SURRENDER AT WILL TO THE SISTERS,

Who Raise Earnest Voices in the Cause of Temperance—An Evangelical and a Gospel Suffrage Meeting Held—Notable Women.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 19.—From nearly every pulpit in this city yesterday the voice of an earnest woman was raised in the cause of temperance. The local ministers almost without exception allowed their pulpits to be occupied by delegates or visitors to the convention of the W. C. T. U. The congregations were large.

In the afternoon at Music hall an evangelistic meeting was conducted by Miss E. W. Greenwood, Evangelistic superintendent of the National W. C. T. U. The annual sermon was delivered by Rev. J. W. Bashford, president of Wesleyan university, Delaware, O. Fully 5,000 people attended the services.

Immediately following the evangelistic meeting a gospel suffrage meeting was held. It was one of the most notable gatherings of the convention. Rev. Anna Shaw, of Boston, who preached in Unity church in the morning, presided. The center of attraction was Susan B. Anthony, president of the National Woman's Suffrage association. Miss Anthony is 75 years old, and for nearly fifty years has led the movement for the enfranchisement of the women of America. When Miss Anthony was introduced the immense audience rose to its feet and greeted her with long-continued applause and waving handkerchiefs. She predicted the overthrow of the monster of intemperance when the ballot is put in the hands of the mothers, wives and daughters of the land. The speaker predicted that universal suffrage was bound to come and pointed with pride to the action of the last Ohio legislature in giving to women the right to vote on educational matters.

Referring to the recent defeat of the woman suffrage movement in New York and Kansas, Miss Anthony said that while the cause had been lost in both states, it meant simply more work on the same line.

Rev. Joseph Cook, of Boston, spoke briefly, advocating universal suffrage, compulsory voting and an educational qualification.

A meeting of the executive committee of the National Suffrage association will be held at the home of Mrs. Southworth, a prominent local suffragist, this afternoon. The executive committee of the Ohio state association meets at Unity church to-morrow morning.

IN STRANGLERS' ROW.

Another Arrest—Newspaper "Enterprise"—A Reign of Terror.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 18.—The police last night arrested a man giving the name of Moller, claiming to be an Italian, in a house in Strangers' row. He was an ordinary quarrelsome drunk, but the morning papers with a view to supplying the demand "caught him red-handed in the act of strangling Marie Vendres." Marie is large enough and could without any training throw Moller over the house.

The man Dancy, who was indicted for the murder of Lena Tapper, is the most promising "strangler," but the evidence against him is circumstantial. The man Rock, who was arrested last week, the police claim to have some damning evidence against, but they will not divulge it at present.

The residents of Market street are very nervous and superstitious, and the least disturbance, though formerly of hourly occurrence, is now sufficient to create a panic and develop a new strangler. They have put in electric bells and employed watchmen to be constantly on hand.

UNITED STATES AND JAPAN.

The Commercial Arrangements in the New Convention Between Them Under Consideration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Secretary Carlisle was in conference with Secretary Gresham and Minister Kurino yesterday, considering the commercial arrangements in the new convention between the United States and Japan, which has been practically completed, and now only awaits the signatures of Mr. Gresham and Mr. Kurino to be submitted to the senate for its approval.

The treaty, which is the result of negotiations extending over several years, does not differ in any material features from that recently ratified by Japan and Great Britain, the important clause regarding the abolition of consular jurisdiction in the treaty ports and the opening of all Japan to foreign trade remaining almost identical.

Secretary Carlisle was consulted in relation to the immigration clause and those articles which are affected by our tariff laws. It was announced that the treaty would probably be sent to the senate the first week in December.

RENDEZVOUS FOR CRIMINALS.

The Government May Employ Troops to Put Down Lawlessness in the Indian Territory.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Indian territory, because of the peculiar conditions surrounding it, is regarded in official circles here as a rendezvous for all the cut-throats, gamblers and thieves in the country, and government officials find it difficult, because of the extent of the country and the opportunities for hiding in the brush and woods to deal with them. The attorney-general has empowered the marshals to employ all the deputies necessary to put down lawlessness and crime, but as the outcroppings of crime occur spasmodically in various sections almost inaccessible, great difficulty has so far been experienced in catching up with the criminals.

Attorney-General Olney said to-day that while crime and lawlessness were prevalent to a considerable extent, still there was no open revolt or revolution; the judicial authorities had not asked for United States troops; the postmaster-general had not complained that the mails were obstructed, and up to the present time there seemed to be no more lawlessness than could be properly attended to by the civil authorities. Should the judicial authorities ask for troops in the proper manner and the government felt that troops were necessary to properly enforce the civil law, the government would not hesitate in sending troops to the Indian territory, but as at present advised, he believed the United States marshals were competent to cope successfully with the situation.

A HIGH-HANDED PROCEEDING.

Canadian Officials Taking Up Nets of American Fishermen from American Waters.

SANDUSKY, O., Nov. 19.—Lake Erie fishermen are up in arms at the high-handed conduct of Canadian officials regarding the fisheries of the lake. The Canadian ram Petrel is stationed a few miles northeast of Kelly's island taking out gill nets, the work being done by men sent out from the cruiser in yawls. American fishermen claim that these nets are in American waters, but they dare not approach the cruiser for fear of being taken. In this state of affairs they have appealed to the collector of customs here, who has taken steps to have the United States steamer Fessenden sent to the fishing grounds to see that no more nets are taken out of American waters. According to charts the place where the nets are being taken is clearly in American waters and the fishermen complain bitterly of the loss of their nets with the fish in them, amounting to several thousand dollars.

NATURAL GAS

Causes the Partial Asphyxiation of a Whole Congregation—Not Yet Out of Danger.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Nov. 19.—Last night half a dozen of the congregation of the Second Methodist Episcopal church were in a serious condition, the result of partial asphyxiation from escaping gas inhaled during the morning services. Last week plumbers were at work in the church, and left a defective fitting in the natural gas pipes. The church was well filled yesterday morning. Toward the close of the services several became sick and left the church. No one knew the cause, as the gas is odorless. When Rev. R. E. Sears attempted to step from the pulpit he fell full length. He was carried home. Mrs. Randall and two daughters fell in the aisle and were assisted home. Several others were prostrated and fell at the church door, while every person in the church was more or less seriously affected. Rev. Sears, Mrs. Randall and her daughters are not yet out of danger.

Address: THE EVENING REPUBLICAN, 128 South Water street, Decatur, Illinois.
MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1894.

HON. GEO. R. DAVIS, of Chicago, should at once align himself with those who insist that Chicago's time to ask for the senatorship is in 1897. Should he do this, and then take an active part in pushing back the enemy in 1896 and winning the legislature, he would by that act recover from the situation his present candidacy for an office he did nothing to win for the Republicans, puts him in. In that case he could with some degree of consistency ask for the office two years hence.

SOME Democratic papers are now charging, in view of the fact that notice of contests have been filed in a number of congressional districts, that such a procedure is insolent and unwarranted because the Republican majority is large enough. This is up with the average reasoning of a Democratic paper. It is equivalent to saying, in case a man committed a forgery and succeeded in securing money from a bank with plenty of money that the culprit should not be prosecuted because the bank was able to lose it. A Republican congress never has, and will not now, unseat a man who has been legally elected; but it will and ought to unseat every man who holds his seat by error or fraud if it takes the seat from every Democrat who holds a seat on the face of the returns. The motto should be, not do we need more Republican members, but down with election frauds, no matter whom it unseats.

That Senatorship.
Springfield News: When it was Chicago's turn to have the senatorship that city gave the Democrats 30,000 plurality and lost the legislature. Chicago had better wait two years.

Flora Journal: Now that Illinois Republicans have carried the legislature they will declare by an immense majority that Senator Cullom must succeed himself.

Springfield News: George R. Davis reasons for asking the United States senatorship are "sickled over with a pale cast of thought" in a manner to suggest a clear case of no reason at all.

Aurora Beacon: If Senator Cullom is to have any other successor than himself he must come from the interior of the state. Chicago's turn will come when Senator Palmer is retired.

Cambridge Chronicle: Shelby M. Cullom will be his own successor if he lives—and the Chronicle hopes he will. "Republicans are ungrateful," says the adage, but the Republicans of Illinois are not.

Peoria Herald: Of course the senator should be a Cook county man. Why not turn the whole business over to the county of Cook? But the gentleman from Podunk will have something to say, all the same.

Springfield News: Two-thirds of the Cook county Republican members of the legislature will support Senator Cullom on the first caucus ballot. This is not official, but it is reliable, for it was decided at the primaries months ago.

Kendall County Record: The Chicago Post is very clamorous that the United States Senator to succeed Mr. Cullom shall be a Chicago man. As the party represented by the Post did not win this fight, that paper should be more modest.

Genoa Issue: The Chicago Herald insists that the next United States senator shall come from Chicago. It seems to us that the Herald's editorials are not the ones that won. A little out of order, don't you think?

Peoria Transcript: The Chicago Republicans have done better at developing a multiplicity of candidates for United States senator than they have at securing the unanimity which will be necessary for the success of their plan to capture the senatorship.

Albion Journal: The extraordinary pains taken by the Democratic newspapers of St. Louis and Chicago to disclose the unpopularity of Senator S. M. Cullom plainly shows that his presence in the United States senate is more dreaded by Democracy than that of any other Republican mentioned for the position.

Paxton Record: George R. Davis of Chicago seems to have thrown himself into the senatorial breach, so to speak, instantly upon the clearing away of the battle clouds and the revealing of a Republican victory. We are of the opinion that if he had aided more vigorously in the contest, he might, with more justice, demand a share of its results. The public clamor for him to come to the front has not been heard beyond the city limits of Chicago, and is not very loud there.

Peoria Herald: Chicago is nothing if not hoggyish. This is shown by her now demanding that she shall be given the United States Senatorship after having gobbled the most lucrative state office. It is none of our funeral, and we don't like Mr. Cullom, but we believe he is entitled to what he worked for. Neither Davis nor any of the other Chicago candidates made special exertions to secure Republican success, nor were any of them, with the exception of Billy Mason, candidates for the office until after the victory had been won. Gentlemen, don't be hoggyish.

Alton Daily Telegraph: "Chicago wants a United States Senator, and there can be no valid objection to that city's furnishing a good Republican to succeed Palmer."—Champaign Gazette. That is just it. There is not a Republican in the state but will aid in giving Palmer's seat to some good Republican.

Chicago. Palmer stepped in Senator Farwell's place, and Farwell succeeded the lamented Logan, both Chicago men. Then let the Chicago men wait and work to get the place in the senatorial ranks lost by that city's going over to the Democracy.

An Oversight.
The Chicago Tribune, Saturday, unfortunately printed and commented upon two interviews, one alleged to be given by Thomas B. Reed and the other by Senator John Sherman, in which both are made to say they are opposed to the re-enactment of the McKinley tariff law, in spite of the fact that both interviews have been repudiated by both Reed and Sherman over two weeks ago. The following is Sherman's correction, which is on the same line as that made by Reed:

There is nothing in any statement I have made about the election or the McKinley law that can be construed in any way as a reflection upon the distinguished Republican whose name the act bears. On the contrary, I look upon the recent election as an endorsement of the general protection policy of the Republican party and the McKinley act as the best expression of that policy the country has ever seen. It is perhaps not perfect; few tariffs are, but its whole tenor and purpose must meet the sanction and approval of Republicans. When it comes to the question of schedules—the details of such a measure—there may be an honest difference of opinion as to how high or how low certain rates should be placed. There were items in the Republican act upon which some thought the duty too high, but every man in that great party considered the McKinley act, as a whole, as representative of the general policy of the party that enacted it into law. The last election must justify, therefore, be accepted as a general endorsement of the principles of the McKinley act and of Republican ideas and policies, and a rebuke to the motives that actuate the party now dominant in national affairs.

Something to Think About.
If there are any Republicans in central and southern Illinois who have so little political foresight as to favor the election of a Chicago man to the United States senate, at this time, when Chicago is clearly not entitled to that concession, they should ask themselves this question: If we make this concession to Chicago, in contravention of our rights, and of justice to our people, or Chicago, in disregard of these rights should force a Chicago man upon the state, what assurance can there be that Chicago, in 1897, when it is her turn to have a senator, will not discover that Congressman Hitt or Hopkins or some other man in northern Illinois should be senator and elect him, and perhaps charge while doing it that when it was the turn of the south part of the state to have it the people of that section did not insist upon their rights.

Marvelous Results.
From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Diamond Lake, Mich. we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottle free at King & Hubbard's drug store. Regular size, 50c and $1.00.

CORBETT AND HIS PLAY.

Better than Ever—The Champion on Riordan's Death.

Saturday night there was a large audience at the Grand—the gallery and balcony packed—to see the champion pugilist of the world, James J. Corbett, in play "Gentleman Jim," supported by a good company. The play with the musical specialties, was all right, but what the audience came to see and what they appreciated most was the boxing match between Corbett and Steve O'Donnell.
That realistic affair was the last thing on the programme. It was three rapid rounds which awakened lively interest among the "lovers of the manly art." Corbett was stripped in prize ring style and so was O'Donnell, and with five ounce gloves they went at each other quite furiously at times. It was plain to be seen that Corbett is an all-round athlete, well able to take care of himself. He doesn't like the ideal prize fighter, but that he is dead game Sullivan and Mitchell and their friends know to their sorrow and financial loss. In the training quarters Corbett did an exhibition turn at punching the bag, and he handled the dumb-bells to give play to his muscles. There were many ladies present to enjoy the performance.

TALKS WITH CORBETT.

During the evening the REPUBLICAN reporter had two pleasant interviews with the champion, one at the St. Nicholas, and one in his dressing room on the stage between acts. Mr. Corbett is congenial, smooth and self-possessed. He is free to converse on any topic, but of course he chats chiefly about stage people and the ring.

"I am very sorry," he said, "to learn that in the exhibition sparring match at Syracuse that Bob Fitzsimmons had killed his partner, Con Riordan. It was too bad for many reasons. I knew Con well in 'Frisco where I have sparred with him many times.
He was not fit to stand up against Bob.
He was a physical wreck, and badly diseased. He was as likely to drop dead in sparring as he was after running 100 yards, and I blame Bob for using him for a punching bag. He should have had a professional boxer for a partner. It was Bob's famous chin blow that did the work, I guess. Steve O'Donnell knows, and every night he tries to give it to me in one round, but he has not succeeded yet. O'Donnell used to spar Bob in Australia, and I am learning all his tricks in preparation for our fight.
I hope the accident of Con's death will not tie up the match between Bob and I.
We are to fight in September at Jacksonville, Florida, for a purse of $41,000 and a purse of $10,000 a side, making a total of $61,000. I will go into active training in July at Asbury Park. Every day while on the road I take a walk or run of 20 miles. I am now in good trim, and weigh 195 pounds. My natural weight is my fighting weight. I expect to win.

"Manager Brady and I will watch Steve O'Donnell to fight any man in the world, any time, any place, for any money, Peter Maher or Jim Hall preferred. He will issue the challenge Monday at Chicago.

"My $10,000 championship belt, stolen at Davenport, Iowa, Sunday, Nov. 11, out of a jeweler's show window, is still invisible. You can state that I will give $500 for its return to me. I think it is being held for the reward. It was given me by the Police Gazette after I whipped Sullivan, and to me it is a precious trophy.

"What about Peter Jackson? Oh, he has gone to Africa, and I guess I'll never be bothered with him again. I gave him every chance on earth to fight me, but he saw fit to back down on a technicality and that ended it."

NEW APPLICANTS.

The regular quarterly examinations were held in Superintendent Donahay's office Saturday afternoon. The following wrote for second grade certificates: Fannie Stackhouse, Argenta; Irene Ashburn, Kenney; Edna Johnston, Hallie Johnston, and Edith Glenn, Macon; Lillian F. Ellis, Allenboro; Belle Wheeler, Decatur; Lunder Hill, Dalton City; Grace Gouge, Harristown. Six of these are new applicants. Edna and Hallie Johnston and Lillian Ellis already have schools.

A Six O'clock Dinner.

At his home on Prairie avenue Saturday evening F. M. Young gave a six o'clock dinner to the office force of the wholesale house of the Young Bros. & Maris Co. The guests were J. M. Maris, G. A. Stadler, H. R. Maris, Sherman McClelland, J. H. Myer, J. T. Higginbotham, E. R. Davis, J. W. Allen, H. S.
Colladay, Charles Fought and J. C. Hostetter. After an excellent dinner the guests enjoyed cigars and then what.
It was an evening of pleasure all round.

Donnelly and Girard.

These famous comedians will appear at the Grand Thursday evening, Nov.
22. A New York exchange says:

"The Rainmakers" will remain at the Park Theater for several weeks to come.
Last week the house was crowded at every performance, and the indications are that it will play to standing room only for the remainder of the engagement. The fun is fast and furious throughout the entire comedy, and the specialties introduced are most entertaining.

DURFEE TO PROSECUTE.

He Promises to Get After Companies Doing an Illegal Business.

Chicago Tribune.

Insurance Commissioner B. K. Durfee was in Chicago yesterday on his way to New York, where he is to serve as a member of the committee to report on the condition of the New York Life Insurance company. He is to be gone two weeks, and he said yesterday on his return home he would take up the case of the Lloyds organizations, which the supreme court has decided to be corporations in the true sense of law, and which therefore are doing business in Illinois without warrant of law.
There are other companies to be sifted up for failing to report to the insurance commissioner and to pay the tax of 2 per cent on the gross premium receipts as required by law. The department, however, is suffering for a lack of funds. Under the law the meager appropriation does not get into the hands of the insurance commissioner, but into the hands of the attorney-general. It is soon exhausted and then the department's hands are tied. That is the present situation, but it is understood Mr.
Durfee can have the funds needed for a prosecution of the "wildcat" and mutual companies and the Lloyds organizations.
Mr. Durfee claims to have direct evidence against fully twenty-five companies and he promises prosecution of all on his return from New York.

The State University.

The occasion of the inauguration of President Andrew S. Draper and the dedication of the thoroughly equipped new engineering hall at Urbana November 15, emphasizing more strongly than ever the position the University of Illinois is taking in the educational system of the state. People are beginning to recognize the fact that we have a great University in the state as was shown by the large number of prominent men in attendance from all over the country.

Dr. Draper, the newly elected president, is a man of remarkable executive ability, and the name he has gained as a lawyer and as state superintendent of the schools of New York indicates that the trustees made no mistake when they elected him to his present position. The beginning of his administration will no doubt mark a new era in the progress of the University.

The new Engineering hall is the handsomest in the country, and while it may at this time call attention especially to the excellence of the engineering colleges, yet it must not be forgotten that the other college courses offered are equally good.
The school has had a remarkable growth. From but sixty-five engineering students fifteen years ago the number has swelled to nearly five hundred this year. The University authorities are doing their best to make the University of Illinois the peer of any institution in the land, and with the support of the State Legislature and the loyal citizens of Illinois it may be done.

Improved Train Service on the P.
D. & E. Railway.

The Peoria, Decatur & Evansville Railway will on Sunday, Nov. 18th, put into effect a new passenger train schedule. Train No. 4, which in the past has left Mattoon at 4:55 a. m., will leave at 2:10 a. m., Decatur 4:10, arriving Peoria 7:15 a. m., making immediate connections with all trains for the North and Northwest, via the Rock Island, Burlington, Iowa Central and T. P. & W. routes. Thus makes the best time to the North and Northwest. Train No. 3 will leave Peoria at 7 p. m., after the arrival of all trains from the West, making connection at Decatur with the Wabash for the East, and with the I., D. & W. for Indianapolis and Cincinnati. In addition to this, an accommodation train will be put on leaving Mattoon at 5 a. m., Decatur 7:45, arriving Peoria 1:10 p. m., making three passenger trains northbound instead of two as in the past.
Trains Nos. 3 and 4 will run daily, and the special Sunday trains as formerly run will be taken off.

Hoyt's Best Comedy.

Hoyt's famous farce comedy, "A Trip to Chinatown" is the splendid attraction for to-morrow evening at the Grand. It comes here direct from the marvelous New York run of over 600 nights. Unlike the majority of so-called New York successes, Mr. Hoyt sends it upon the road with a complete set of scenery and properties, and, for a farce comedy, scenery plays an important part in a "Trip to Chinatown." Consequently an additional attraction will be found in the famous Cliff House, San Francisco, and the equally well-known Cafe Riche in the same gay city. The play abounds with humor, the music is new and catchy, the costumes most beautiful and the cast clever—what more do you want?

A Lecture.

William Hawley Smith will deliver a lecture on "The Evolution of Dodd" next Thursday evening at the High School in the assembly room. Mr. Smith is recognized as a lecturer of the first class and should have a large audience.
He is very highly recommended as being a witty and eloquent speaker. Price of admission, twenty-five cents. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the library.

Stoves.

IN AN INDIAN MOSQUE.

Busy Scenes Among the Houses of Worship in Morocco.

There is, in truth, a good deal of life and movement to be seen from the crumbling steps of Vazir Khan; there are two domed edifices which may have once been tombs or fountains, but which now shelter various trades beneath the rude thatched awnings projecting from their eaves. Tailors and tailors' apprentices stitch all day at stalls of dilapidated garments in their shadow, and cobbler busy themselves with lumps of dusty old shoes, and in the middle of the square their open-air restaurants, where great kettles of timed copper stand upon platforms elevated above the ground and surrounded by rough benches; sooty frying-pans sizzle on little clay furnaces, and the keepers of these restaurants sit enthroned among the their cooking-utensils and diligently fight the swarms of flies with long-handled brushes. In the middle of the day the benches are crowded with customers, who have the appearance of being peasants from the outlying country, or Pathan peddlers;

and most of them being volitionally swathed in white, they look not a little like the patrons of similar places in Morocco. A great deal of horse-shoeing and veterinary practice is carried on in one corner, under a great tree, and there is always a sound of hammering; and clashing of metal from the smoky arches behind.

Occasionally two men drag up a struggling ram to the corner steps of the mosque; having seated themselves they proceed to divest him of his fleece, and after finishing their work, confide their own heads to the barber, who plies the shears under a straw awning close by. The great open court of the mosque is seldom thronged except at noon; a few school boys run their books under the eye of a master in one corner, and an occasional beggar strolls in, and stretches himself out to sleep on the pavement among the pigeons. To those who have been reared in other lands, in the face of the stern sultanist, there is something broadly democratic in the faith of Islam as it is practiced to-day.

While in most countries still under

Musman dominion the unbeliever is rigidly excluded from the mosque, the humblest of the faithful may find there a refuge from the weather, sleep in the protecting shadow of its cloisters, and bath in the water of the tank. Without descending again into the square, we may pass through the long corridor and down the little steps at the end, and we are in the gayest street of La-hor: in its display of carved and weather-beaten wood-work, of balconies and jutting windows, each house

Notes Taken on Three Sunday Sermons—Midway at the Tabernacle.

Sunday was a cool, crisp day, and as usual the churches had large congregations.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

There was a large congregation to hear Rev. D. F. Howe at the First M. E. church Sunday evening. His text was:

"Buy the truth and sell it not."—Prov. xiii, 13; and "Learn of me."—Matt. xi, 20. He said in part:

"I am to-night to talk to you about the A. P. A. and the public schools. I read the other day in a paper that a man had a very large and vicious serpent in a glass box, and while it was true the serpent could do no injury, no man had the fortitude to put his hand on the glass and hold it there while the serpent struck at it. This was the law of self-preservation that expressed itself. It made expression in man in communities and in government. When it was made to appear that strong competition in manufactures was coming from abroad, there was strong opposition to it which was expressed at the election. It was the law of self-preservation asserting itself.

The A. P. A. society, as an organization, is the expression of the law of self-preservation. No organization has grown so rapidly. Already political parties look upon it and wonder what effect it is to have in politics. It has been attacked by the Catholic church.

There is one principle in the order that no man can object to—the broad basis of American principle. It is not right that any man should be proscribed in any way because of his religious belief considered by itself. We must accord every man the right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and considering these things by themselves.

Now if the A. P. A. has any quarrel with the Catholic church on account of its religion, then it will have to take away the first letter "A." If a man comes into a community to lecture on two confessional, or any other thing in the Catholic church he has a right to do so, but he must not be permitted to do it under the direction of the A. P. A., because that order can't get down to that kind of work.

While no man should be proscribed in his religious belief, it is not right for any church to propagate any doctrine, under the cover of religious belief, that means the destruction of any American institution. Neither the Protestant nor Catholic church has a right to do this.
The A. P. A. believes the Catholic church is attempting to cripple and destroy the public schools. This arises from the fact that they have tried to put the Bible out of the public school, on the ground that it is sectarian. The Protestant can not see how this can be true. The Catholics have forced the Bible out of the public schools, in a manner, but now they turn around and charge that the schools are Godless.

Then again this church has in many instances asked to be relieved from paying taxes to keep up our schools, and in other cases that the taxes be divided between public and parochial schools.
Mr. Howe here read from utterances of the Pope and other leading Catholic dignitaries, attacks on the public schools. He held that the attitude of that church must be judged, as other churches are, by what its teachers say.
Then again, the Catholic church is so distinctly foreign. We have reached a point where we don't take kindly to too much foreignism. A congressman recently lost his seat in congress because he went into a foreign land where he attended a feast and accepted praise from them as their benefactor.

Then again, until the Pope have children of their own to train we don't want them to advise us how to train our children. Before I had children of my own I thought myself qualified to tell a people how to train children. Since I have become the father of a family I have ceased to preach to others how to raise a family. My text says "Buy the truth." Our schools are free; but when you get into the yoke, you buy the truth with attention, by toll, by study.
Truth must always be bought if you get it. Newton, Fulton, Morse and Edison paid attention and got great truths. The price of truth is attention. The engineer of a freight train received an order giving him the right of the track until 1:15; he read it 1:50 and there was a collision, a fearful wreck, two men were killed, others injured and property destroyed, all because he did not pay attention to his order. He had not bought the truth. Men here in Decatur are going on, day by day, who are not paying attention and are losing knowledge and some are going down to destruction and death. Buy the truth.
Men say let us do our own thinking in religion. I don't do my own thinking alone; I want other men to think for me I pay attention to what others think or have thought. When my family is sick I want the physician to think for me.
In religion I want the greatest character who ever lived to do my thinking—Jesus Christ. "Buy the truth and sell it not. You can't afford to sell the truth and profit by it. Fulton had a great thought. He did not sell it. The world would have been the loser had he sold it. Abraham Lincoln when his neighbors became alarmed at the shower of stars looked through the shower and beheld the old planetary system in fact and went to bed. By attention he bought the truth.

So it is with the great trials of christianity. Amid all the flushings of infidelity and assumptions they stand like the old constellation. "Buy the truth and sell it not." That truth will make you free

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

Grace M. E. church was filled last evening with a large and appreciative audience which had gathered to attend the regular service. Rev. Mr. Hobbs, the pastor in charge, delivered an able and in-tructive address, taking for his theme the importance and necessity of leading a pure christian life. The talents of ingenuity were mentioned and ably refuted. The christian man was pictured as one who endeavored to keep himself uncontaminated from the world and who carried out in his daily life the truths of christianity. The deeds which spring from a pure life are pure, even as the clear crystal water must come from a pure fountain head. The effects of a past misspent life cling to men. A bad deed

once done lingers in the minds of those who know him and frequently arise in judgment against him.

The singing at Grace church is congregational, led by a quartet and organist, and is of a high and interesting order.

THE TABERNACLE.

There was an audience of 1400 out last night to see the stereopticon views and hear the lecture by Elder Hall who spoke principally upon temperance and morality. There was a baptism service at the close. It was announced that revival meetings would begin early in January; that a representation of the Midway Plaisance would be given the first week in December; that John Littlefield would lecture on "Personal Recollections of Abraham Lincoln." Nov.
26, and that Thanksgiving dinner would be served Nov. 29th.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

At the First Presbyterian church two large audiences greeted Dr. Penhallegon, who delivered two able sermons, the one in the evening being a character sketch of Abraham, and although suffering from a severe cold, the doctor made this sermon especially interesting. At the Sunday school hour the superintendent, A. H. Mills, announced that the chrysanthemum reception netted in the neighborhood of $75, and asked the school what should be done with the money. The school voted to give it to the organ fund.

CAME AS AN IMMIGRANT

And, Complying With All the Regulations
Was Allowed to Remain.

New York, Nov. 19.—Henry W.
Elliott, the man arrested, tried and finally deported by the immigration authorities some few weeks ago for having come to this country under contract to Augustin Daly, as head property man, returned yesterday on the American Line steamship New York.

Elliott declared to the inspector who questioned him that he came to this country as an immigrant, had no position in prospect and was not under contract with any individual or company. He complied with all the regulations of the immigration authorities and was not detained.

Laid at the Door of England.

New York, Nov. 18.—The Armenians of this city and vicinity held an indignation meeting yesterday. The meeting was addressed by speakers who laid the responsibility of the recent butchery of Armenians in Kurdistan at the door of England. They also declared the eastern question could no longer remain unsettled, and that war was inevitable unless further carnage was prevented.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

The Chinese Fleet Preparing for Battle—Organizing Chinese Guerrillas.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Central News correspondent in Tien-Tsin says: "The Chinese fleet is at Wei-Hai-Wei. It includes five iron-clads, which are preparing for battle.

"Count von Hanneken, the commander-in-chief of the Chinese army, is organizing in Manchuria several forces of Chinese guerrillas, who already have begun to harass the Japanese, and to threaten their line of communication.
If the Chinese defense of Port Arthur be successful, the entire Japanese army may winter on the Yalu."

A CLASH ON TARIFF

Will Probably Occur When Congress Reconvenes.

A SUPPLEMENTAL BILL TO BE PUSHED

If the Programme Mapped Out by Certain Senators is Adhered To—Conservative Democrats Doubt the Desirability of Such Action.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—When the senate reconvenes on the first Monday in next month, unless the programme mapped out by certain senators should be rearranged, there will probably be a clash on the tariff question. Senator Harris states that he intends to push the supplemental tariff bill for action as soon as possible after congress convenes (which probably means after the holiday recess). This is in accord with the statements he made on the floor of the senate at the time the so-called "pop-gun" tariff bills were referred to the finance committee. The bills relating to free iron ore, coal and barbed wire came from the finance committee practically as they went there, but the bill placing sugar on the free list was pigeonholed and a substitute was reported, placing a duty of 40 per cent on all sugars, thereby doing away with the differential one-eighth duty that operates to the advantage of the refiner, and the discriminating one-tenth duty that operates against the German exporters.

Democratic senators, not among those of use as conservatives, express doubts as to the desirability of attempting to pass any of the tariff bills now on the senate calendar at the next session. One of these senators appreciates the fact that there are leading men in his own party who, aided and abetted by republicans, will use every effort to prevent the present sugar schedule being amended and that to attempt it would result in nothing more than the consumption of valuable time that would be needed in the consideration of measures upon which political lines would not be drawn and upon which the country is demanding action by congress.

To make sugar free, in view of the letter of Secretary Carlisle, and in view of the small receipts under the new law so far, this senator insists, is utterly impossible, and to seek to change the sugar schedule in any way, he thought, would be equally unwise, as it would open up anew the tariff debate, and start a flood of talk that, once unleashed, could not be checked.

A FLORIST'S BLOODY DEED.

He Kills the Woman He Loved and Cuts His Own Throat—Regrets That Came Too Late.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Richard Leach, 31 years old, a florist, who lives with his reputed wife, a young woman named Mary Hope Newkirk, at 412 West Forty-ninth street, killed her early yesterday morning by cutting her throat and then tried to end his own life in the same manner, using a small penknife. The woman died almost instantly. Leach, however, was taken to Bellevue hospital, where it is thought he has a chance of recovery. No one except the victim and her murderer was in the room of the couple when the tragedy was enacted.

A search of the apartments where the tragedy occurred resulted in the finding of a letter written in pencil. Some portions of it were illegible. As much of the writing as was decipherable, read thus:

"S. H. Moore—This is your fault. She is dead and you are the cause. My own Mamie has been dead twenty minutes. I thought I was dead at the same time. See that she has a decent burial. I am dying. DICK."

"Oh how I regret it. Lovely women do be true to your husbands."

There was also found a slate upon which was written: "Tell this to Rev. Fr. Curly and Miss Vivian Brent, Charles, Maryland. My love is dead. My love is dying. I am almost dead."

CONFESSED THE FRAUD

By Which the Fidelity Life Insurance Co. Was Done out of Ten Thousand Dollars.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—It is the arrest of H. Holmes in a West End boarding house yesterday afternoon on a charge of defrauding the Fidelity Life Insurance Co. out of $10,000 and his subsequent confession it was proven that Hon. F. Fitzell alias E. F. Perry, who was supposed to have been the man found dead in the wooden building 1316 Callowhill street, Philadelphia, on September 4, under very suspicious circumstances, is alive and at large.

Holmes confessed that he recommended Fitzell for insurance for $10,000 and was instrumental in having a dead body shipped from New York to Philadelphia, which was subsequently positively identified as Fitzell's. In addition a 14-year-old daughter was brought from St. Louis who also declared that it was the body of her father, as no one had teeth like him. Thereupon the insurance company paid over the $10,000 to an agent designated by the wife. Holmes is also wanted in Texas for horse stealing.

A Silver Conference to be Held in St. Louis.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The executive committee of the American Bimetallist league has called a silver conference to be held at St. Louis November 27, at which the present situation will be fully discussed and the policy hereafter to be pursued by the friends of free coinage of silver will be decided upon.

Benona Taken by the French.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Col. Montell, commander of the last French African expedition, telegraphed from Grand Bassa, West Africa, Saturday, that Benona was taken by the French on November 10. The village and the enemy's position were destroyed. The French forces did not lose a man killed or wounded.

DESTRUCTIVE EARTHQUAKES.

Cities Obliterated and Scores of Persons Killed, with Great Destruction of Property.

ROME, Nov. 19.—The reports of disasters caused by the earthquake in southern Italy are still meager, but they suffice to show that there has been great loss of life. Procopo, a village of 1,300 inhabitants in Reggio di Calabria, has been obliterated. Virtually all the buildings were thrown into ruins. The number of deaths is not known, but in one church forty-seven persons were buried alive under fallen walls. The last authoritative report was that the list of dead was well above sixty. In another village of the same province eight persons were killed outright by falling buildings. The damage to property has been enormous. Troops and officials are going to the help of the suffering districts. King Humbert has sent several donations from his private purse.

Ended a Drunk by Suicide.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 19.—Charles Robertson, a military man of considerable prominence and formerly captain of the Washington artillery of this place, committed suicide at an early hour yesterday morning by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. ## OUR BERLIN SPECIAL.

Chancellor Hohenlohe Leaves Strassburg for Berlin.

A PROSPECTIVE VISIT TO BISMARCK.

Doubts Set at Rest—The Silver Raid on the Government—May Disrupt the Triple Alliance—China's Collapse—Russian Cabinet Etc.

Chancellor Prince Hohenlohe Returns to Berlin.

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—Chancellor Prince Hohenlohe left Strassburg for Berlin yesterday. On his way he will stop in Stuttgart and Dresden to confer with the ministers and sovereigns in the capitals as he conferred with the Bavarian cabinet and Prince Regent Luitpold. No definite arrangements have been made for his visit to Bismarck. Just what he expects to do in Varzin or Friedrichsruhe is not known, although in official circles he is not supposed to be seeking Bismarck's advice as to the ministerial policy. The emperor planned the visit, it is believed, not so much to get Bismarck's political views as to please the German people with an act of courtesy to their old idol.

The Koelnische Zeitung says in an article concerning the significance of the meeting: "Without attaching high political import to the interview, we feel that the meeting would bear good fruit. It would remove a stone of stumbling from the way of many well-meaning Germans who have found it difficult to harmonize their loyalty to the government with their veneration of Bismarck."

The Prospective Visit to Bismarck.

Although the semi-official press represents the prospective visit to Bismarck as a mere act of homage, it will be more. Prince Hohenlohe, while not seeking to adapt his own views to those of Bismarck, will aim probably to secure Bismarck's support or toleration of his policies at home and abroad. As Bismarck maintains relations with the most powerful German courts, he is able to influence their decisions. He, therefore, can help the new cabinet materially, for Prince Hohenlohe's tour of conciliation has relieved but slightly the strain between Berlin and Munich, and Karlsruhe and Prince Luitpold and the Grand Duke of Baden are far from convinced that the theatrical fall of Caprivi was neither necessary or expedient. Moreover, Bismarck's opinions of the agrarian programme will help the government sound the sharp corners of its new protective policy.

Doubts Set at Rest.

All doubts as to the fate of Caprivi's commercial policy have been set at rest by an utterance from Freiherr von Hammerstein, the new minister of agriculture. In a telegram to Freiherr von Schorlermer-Alst, the conspicuous agrarian and clerical, he said: "I mean to fight honestly for the agricultural interests, and I shall reckon upon the support of the clerical party."

The Kreuz Zeitung comments: "Freiherr von Hammerstein knows obviously what German agriculture requires to renew its prosperity. He will find means to enhance the value of the products of German soil."

The Silver Raid on the Government.

The Kreuz Zeitung has prepared the way for the silver raid on the government by declaring: "The ministry will not meet the expectations of the agricultural interests unless the measure raising the price of cereals be combined with international currency reforms. There must also be a measure to assist the sugar industry by an increase of the export premiums."

Premier Crispi of Italy is arranging to meet Prince Hohenlohe in the near future. The principal subject of the interview will be the change in Germany's attitude toward England and its bearing upon the Anglo-Italian understanding. The emperor undoubtedly is less friendly to Lord Rosebery's government than he was to Lord Salisbury's. He is intent upon an aggressive colonial policy which will increase Germany's possessions abroad and in this he is encouraged by Prince Hohenlohe.

May Disrupt the Triple Alliance.

Nothing positive is known as to Germany's course toward the new and more important problem involved in the reported rapprochement between England on one side and Russia and France on the other. The whole European press agrees that such a rapprochement would alter entirely the position of the triple alliance, and might even disrupt it. All must remain uncertain, however, until Russian diplomacy, on which the situation turns, emerges from its present nebulous condition and the ministry of Nicholas II. be finally constituted. The last report is that M. De Giers will retire and that Lobanoff or Schouvaloff will become chancellor, thus filling an office which has been left vacant since Prince Gortschakoff's death.

While the emperor is judged freely for his new attitude toward England, nobody has as yet any information on which to base approval or condemnation of his course. The emperor's distrust of the Rosebery government is based on information which belongs to him, his ministers and his ambassador in London. It is certain, however, that the German foreign office had had no cordial feeling for Lord Rosebery since it checked his little plan to gobble part of the Congo state. This ill-will has gained intensify in recent months, owing to the emperor's personal influence.

Dr. Miquel, Prussian minister of finance, said Saturday, in an interview concerning the new chancellor: "Public opinion makes a great mistake in regarding Prince Hohenlohe as a frail, shaky, old man who is dependent upon others. He has, in fact, got mental vigor and vivacity, and is possessed of a thorough independence, which is in many respects the cause of his high position in society. Owing to his recognized social position he probably will exercise a greater influence over the emperor than Prince Bismarck was able to retain in the latter part of his official career."

Dr. Miquel spoke of Dr. Von Boetticher and Freiherr Masschal von Bieberstein as indispensable members of the cabinet. Both are tried and skillful parliamentary debaters.

China's Collapse.

The Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung said Saturday that China's collapse was due to the weakness of hand and head manifested by those who governed with socialistic absolutism from Peking.

The Vorwaerts replied yesterday: "What is now happening in China is a repetition of the history of Prussia, where a disorganized despotism in which the people had no voice to control the destinies of the state led to the defeat at Jene. Events in China contain a warning for Germany."

The New Russian Cabinet.

The Tageblatt says that Nicholas II. has summoned Miljoutin, ex-minister of war and a confidential adviser of Alexander III. to aid him in reforming the Russian ministry. Privy Counsellor Durnovo, it says, will retire from the ministry of the interior to make way for M. De Pleus; Dr. Witt will retain the finance portfolio and the Grand Duke Sergius will become governor general of St. Petersburg. The Tageblatt is informed that these changes will be made immediately after the funeral.

The Czars Wedding.

The czar has ordered that his wedding shall not be celebrated with the usual pomp. Princess Alix's trousseau, made in Darmstadt and Paris, has been altered since Alexander III.'s death. The bridal robe of white satin, inwrought with precious stones and embroidered with silver interspersed with diamonds, has been rendered less striking by the abundant use of crape, and twelve mourning gowns, wholly black and devoid of jewels or other adornments, have been added to her outfit. One gown of white stamped velvet trimmed with pearls and another of azure blue velvet with a train of the same and trimmed with sable have been laid aside, with many other elaborate costumes which were prepared before the tragedy at Livadia could have been foreseen. The rooms which have been refitted in the winter palace for Princess Alix are those which were occupied by the wife of Nicholas I.

The New Governor of Alsace-Lorraine.

It is reported that the new governor of Alsace-Lorraine will announce the suspension of the exception laws immediately after entering office. The cordial farewell of Hohenlohe in Strassburg is said to have convinced the emperor that the time had come for abating the restrictions.

Miscellaneous Notes.

The Catholics have shown less satisfaction with Dr. Schoenstedt's appointment to the ministry of justice, since learning that his wife is a Protestant and rears her children in her own faith.

The Vorwaerts tries to weaken the effect of Bebel's threat to resign from the social democratic executive committee. "He merely meant," it explains, "that he would use his right to criticize his opponents (the Bavarian socialists). His counsels ought to continue to benefit the whole united party."

Mrs. Blomfield Zeissler, of Chicago, has played with as much success in Frankfurt as here. Her rendering of Rubenstein is specially commended by the critics.

Conrad Uhl, who keeps a large hotel on the Uuden den Linden has gone to New York to be married to Miss Bechtel, daughter of the Staten Island brewer.

Consul General Carroll, of Dresden, has been seriously ill for a week. Since Wednesday his condition has improved slowly.

The American colony in Dresden has not decided to join the Berlin Americans in celebrating Thanksgiving, but to observe the day with private dinner parties.

The trade relations in consular districts of Berlin and Chemnitz show that the export trade with the United States had greatly increased since the new tariff bill went into effect.

Dr. Stefanson, of Reykjavik, Iceland, was deputed some time ago to invite the emperor to visit Iceland next summer. The emperor's reply is that his only objection is the lack of telegraphic communication with Iceland. He feels that he could not go to a place where he must be isolated so long from news of state affairs.

Blumenthal's "Zwei Wappon" has had a triumph at the Lessing theater. The prodigy violinist Hubemann, who is but 9 years old, is playing with great success at the Academy of Music.

NEWY. BRIDGEMAN, once a resident of Lincoln, has been elected clerk of the district court of Sedgewick county, Kas., at Wichita.

CHARLES J. BIRKET has purchased the Thompson farm near Paxton from the assignees of the Ford County Bank for $18,000.

While the emperor is judged freely for his new attitude toward England, nobody has as yet any information on which to base approval or condemnation of his course. The emperor's distrust of the Rosebery government is based on information which belongs to him, his ministers and his ambassador in London. It is certain, however, that the German foreign office had had no cordial feeling for Lord Rosebery since it checked his little plan to gobble part of the Congo state. ## DEATH OF HON. J. K. WARREN

A Leading and Honored Citizen Called Away Sunday Morning.

Sketch of His Active Life—Funeral Tuesday Afternoon—The Arrangements

In Saturday's issue of the REPUBLICAN appeared a statement that Hon. John K. Warren was then in a critical condition. He passed away in death at his home, 510 West Decatur street, Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, the immediate cause being capillary bronchitis with heart complications. Mr. Warren was 60 years of age.

About a week ago Mr. Warren went to Toledo, Ohio, on business, and while there he was more or less exposed in a snow storm. The exposure brought on a severe cold from which he did not recover.

The death of Mr. Warren takes away a man of energy and sound judgment who has been prominently identified with all important public enterprises in Decatur for many years, while personally he has been largely instrumental in developing the city and building up profitable enterprises. He was an upright and honored citizen, possessing a kind and sympathetic nature. He had many personal friends in business and social circles who admired and loved him as a brother for his many good qualities.

Mr. Warren was a member of Beaumanoir Commandery No. 9, Knights Templar, and had been for many years a director of the Indianapolis, Decatur & Western Railway company.

The funeral will take place from St. John's Episcopal church Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 2 p. m. Rev. F. N. Atkin, the rector, will officiate, assisted by Rev. W. H. Prestley, of Kankakee.

Mr. Warren had been a resident of Decatur since 1855, coming here from the city of Philadelphia, where he was born and reared. He became familiar with agricultural pursuits in the east, and came west with the intention of engaging in the grain business in Chicago, but the climate of that city, with the stiff breezes from the lakes, did not agree with him, and made his asthma, from which he was a sufferer from childhood, much worse. He sought an agreeable section, and decided to locate in Decatur, he and his mother locating on a farm in the northeast corner of Decatur township in 1856. He came to Decatur in 1858 to engage in the manufacture of wheat drills as a partner of S. H. Boyakin. He retired from that enterprise in 1859, and at once began business as an insurance and real estate agent. In 1861 the deceased formed a partnership with the late H. B. Durfee in the real estate insurance and title abstract business under the firm name of Warren & Durfee. In 1863 B. K. Durfee became a member of the firm. The first system of title abstracting that was copyrighted was the "H. B. Durfee Continuous and Self-Connecting System, with Durfee, Warren & Co's Improvements," which was largely introduced throughout the west from 1864 to 1869. In May, 1867, Miss Emma Powers, daughter of Mrs. A. A. Powers, became the wife of Mr. Warren. To the couple was given one son, Giles R. Warren.

In politics Mr. Warren was always a Republican, and in 1867 he was elected mayor of the city over Franklin Priest, Democrat. He also served as member of the board of education for nine years. Mr. Warren from 1867 to 1872 was actively engaged in securing railroad lines through Decatur. He was identified with the present L. D. & W., the old P. L. & D., and the present Peoria division of the Vandalia system. The present Wabash line from Decatur to Chicago was secured largely through the efforts of Mr. Warren. In 1868 he led in establishing the present gas plant in Decatur, and became the secretary and treasurer, and the electric plant was added. He was the pioneer in the building associations in the city, making the first move in that direction with Ira T. Harris in 1873, being joined in the enterprise by B. K. Durfee. In 1881 Warren & Durfee added the manufacturing business to their property, first making wooden trays, and then engaging in the manufacture of automatic grain scales and weighers. The Boss Weigher and Loader proved the most popular. The appointment of Mr. Durfee as state superintendent of insurance in 1893 resulted in Mr. Warren taking the insurance business under the name of the Warren Insurance Agency.

A Bad Fire

A fire occurred in the County Clerk's office in the court house at Shelbyville early Sunday morning and extending to the treasurer's office and the room above entailed a heavy loss. The damage to the records in the clerk's office is almost beyond computation, it being impossible to duplicate some of them. The treasurer's books were not damaged. The wood work of almost the entire structure, built 10 years ago at a cost of $75,000 is much burned and defaced. Some believe the fire was of incendiary origin, though no motive for such a crime is now apparent. The loss on the building will be $5,000 and on records $15,000 to $20,000. The work on the new tax books almost completed, will have to be duplicated.

For the Benefit of the Library
